Our Summer 2007 issue of the RRA Alliance is attached below.

RRA is committed to providing the best consulting resources available in the industry to your project. We continue to expand and grow our resources and build alliances and partnerships that will allow us to offer you the best consulting solutions available.

We encourage you to visit our new website at www.raconsulting.com for more information on our company and the services we provide.

GE Healthcare User Summit
Collective Knowledge

GE Healthcare User Summit

Boston August 27-30th

RRA CEO, Laura Noble will be in Boston for the GE Healthcare User Summit to meet with our customers. Please contact us at Information@rraconsulting.com to set up time for us to meet with you.

Epic Systems Corporation

Consulting Agreement with RRA

Renaissance Resource Associates has signed an agreement with Epic Systems Corporation to provide consulting services to clients of Epic. This agreement allows clients who are implementing Epic the opportunity to utilize resources from RRA to supplement their project implementation staff.

American Association of Healthcare Consultants

Defining the Future: Healthcare 2020

In attendance at the Spring Conference held by the American Association of Healthcare Consultants from RRA was AAHC member and RRA Vice President of Business Development, Margie Stohler.

The feature presentation for this conference was in regards to defining the future of the healthcare industry. Objectives included discussions around the changing healthcare environment, digital technology, and digital initiatives such as evidence based medicine, e-health, and electronic medical records that can assist with process improvement strategies.

If you are interested in more information about the conference and our initiatives with business intelligence technologies, please contact Margie at Margie@rraconsulting.com.

Upgrading to GE Centricity?

RRA has resources available that can provide expert assistance in the area of application consulting, project management, interfaces, conversion, testing and technical expertise to help you achieve the best possible results for your upgrade project.

We can assist with building and implementing your project plan and provide the experienced Centricity resources that you are looking for. Our team will work with your project team to ensure that current functionality requirements are met along with optimizing new application feature functionality.

If you are interested in finding out more on what RRA can bring to your Centricity upgrade project, please contact us.

Ask the Expert

We are excited to implement an "Ask the Expert" column. This is your opportunity to pose a question or problem to our expert team. We will then do what we love best, putting the breadth and depth of our teams' knowledge to work to provide you with the information you need. Responses to your questions will be published in subsequent issues of Alliance.

Please submit questions for future issues to Information@rraconsulting.com.
